Fee Liability 2023/24 academic year

Cancellation, Deferral, Intermission and Transfer

Cancellation, Deferral, Intermission and Transfer (as each of those terms is defined in the Terms and Conditions) requests carry the same fee liability consequences as Cancellation as they all involve the Cancellation of a reserved course place.

Your fee liability on Cancellation, Deferral, Intermission and Transfer is based on the Tuition Fee as set out in the table below, regardless of the instalment plan you have chosen.

Cooling off period

- Students can cancel their courses within 14 days of acceptance (the "cooling off period").
- If you cancel during the cooling off period and before your Course start date, you will not be liable for your Annual Tuition Fee.
- If you cancel during the cooling off period but your course has already started, The University of Law can charge for materials provided and a reasonable pro-rata fee.

Start Month	Course duration	No Fee Liability	Full Fee Liability
		If you cancel on or before the date during your Cooling Off Period or at least one calendar month before the start date you will not be liable for your Course Tuition Fee.	If you cancel after the end of the Cooling Off Period once your course has started but you cancel within two months from the start date of your Course.	If you cancel at any other time after the end of the Cooling Off Period and after 2 months of the course starting
