

Terms and Conditions for The University of Law International Bursary

These terms and conditions (“Terms”) apply to the international bursary scheme (“International Bursary”) offered by The University of Law Limited (No.07933838) (“ULaw”, “we”, “our” or “us”), which offers a reduction in course fees to eligible International Students (as defined below) who have received an offer on a Qualifying Course (each as defined below) with ULaw.

These Terms apply in relation to Qualifying Courses commencing from 1 July 2024 to 30 June 2025. This includes full time face to face attendance mode courses at one of ULaw’s campuses in the United Kingdom, and full time and part time online courses. Please see paragraph 2 for further detail.

You should pay particular attention to the provisions of paragraphs 3.4, 4.3, 4.4, 5.4, 6, 11.5 and 11.7.

For the avoidance of doubt, you remain bound by these Terms in addition to the Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule (as defined in the glossary below). If you accept your place on a Qualifying Course at ULaw but are not or cease to be eligible for the International Bursary, you remain liable for your course fees under the Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule.

If you have any queries or concerns relating to the terms of the International Bursary, please contact us at internationalscholarships@law.ac.uk.

- 2.2. Please note that part time face to face attendance mode courses do not qualify for an International Bursary.

3. What are the Eligibility Criteria for an International Bursary?

- 3.1. To meet the Eligibility Criteria you must:
 - (a.) meet the ULaw’s admissions criteria (which may be updated from time to time) as set out on the ULaw’s website;

- (b.) have received an offer of a place on a Qualifying Course at ULaw;
 - (c.) have accepted your place and enrolled on a Qualifying Course to start between 1 July 2024 to 30 June 2025 (for attendance mode at one of the ULaw campuses in the United Kingdom and online courses); and

- 3.2. You must notify ULaw immediately of any change in your circumstances which may affect your eligibility to receive an International Bursary. If you fail to do so, ULaw will be entitled to recover from you the value of the Fee Reduction offered under the International Bursary or any associated award or benefit. ULaw shall also be entitled to recover from you the value of the Fee Reduction offered under the International Bursary given to you in error.
- 3.3. Even if you meet the Eligibility Criteria in paragraphs 3.1(a.) to 3.1(d.) above, you will cease to be eligible for an International Bursary if at any time you:
- (a.) you cancel your place on the Qualifying Course;
 - (b.) you are withdrawn from the Qualifying Course;
 - (c.) you transfer to a course that is not listed as a Qualifying Course in Schedule 1 to these Terms;
 - (d.) secure or subsequently obtain, full financial sponsorship for your course from an employer or other sponsoring organisation; or

4. Satisfactory Evidence required to qualify for an International Bursary

- 4.1. For the purposes of paragraph 3.1(d.) above, Satisfactory Evidence means originals or copies of passports, any evidence submitted to ULaw on CAS Shield and/or your application to receive a 'Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies' (further information available here) from ULaw, and any other proof for the nationality that you stated on your application to study at ULaw ("Satisfactory Evidence").
- 4.2. Please note:
- (a.) for face to face attendance mode Qualifying Courses, ULaw will take copies of original Satisfactory Evidence documents at your enrolment on campus before you commence your Qualifying Course; or
 - (b.) for online courses you will be expected to submit full and complete relevant Satisfactory Evidence when requested by ULaw.

- 4.3. Failure to provide accurate and complete Satisfactory Evidence will mean that you immediately cease to be eligible for the International Bursary and the provisions of paragraph 3.4 (above) will apply.
- 4.4. ULaw reserves the right to request you to submit any further evidence as it may reasonably require to support your offer under the International Bursary. You will be given a period of time within which you must respond to that request. Failure to respond within the given timeframe will mean that you immediately cease to be eligible for the International Bursary and the provisions of paragraph 3.4 (above) will apply.

5. Application of the Fee Reduction

- 5.1. So long as you meet the Eligibility Criteria, your International Bursary will automatically be allocated to you once you are in receipt of an offer on a Qualifying Course from ULaw. You do not need to make an application for the International Bursary.
- 5.2. Once you have accepted your offer to study at ULaw on a Qualifying Course the relevant Fee Reduction specified in Schedule 1 for that Qualifying Course will be applied to the final instalment(s) of the balance of your Annual Tuition Fee according to your Fee Schedule, instalment or payment plan. The Fee Reduction specified in Schedule 1 for your Qualifying Course is the Fee Reduction you will receive under the International Bursary.
- 5.3. Prior to the start of your Qualifying Course you will be issued with a fee instalment plan (to be read alongside the Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule) which will illustrate each payment you are required to make towards your Annual Tuition Fees for your Qualifying Course less the Fee Reduction under the International Bursary (which will be apportioned equally between each fee instalment payment that you make).
- 5.4. Please note that any deposit you are required to pay for your Qualifying Course must be paid by you in full and the Fee Reduction offered under the International Bursary will not apply in relation to your deposit.

6. Limitations on the International Bursary

- 6.1. The International Bursary is subject to availability. ULaw reserves the right to withdraw the International Bursary at any time and does not guarantee that the International Bursary will be always be available. ULaw will notify students in advance if at any time it decides to withdraw the International Bursary.

7. How does the International Bursary relate to other Discounts, Scholarships and Bursaries?

- 7.1. You will not be entitled to receive the International Bursary and any other award, discount, credit, rebate, scholarship or bursary offered by ULaw (each an “Award”) unless it is listed in Schedule 2 to these Terms (the “Permitted Awards”). If you are successful in an application for both the International Bursary and any other Award, you will receive only one of either the International Bursary or Award, whichever has the highest value. If you are successful in an application for both the International Bursary and any number of Permitted

Awards, you will receive both the International Bursary and all of the relevant Permitted Awards.

8. What happens if you are allocated an International Bursary but decide to cancel or withdraw from your place on a Qualifying Course?

Please read this paragraph alongside your Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule.

8.1. If you have been given an International Bursary but you then decide to cancel or withdraw from your place on a Qualifying Course and:

- (a.) it is before the “No Annual Fee Liability Date” (as defined in your Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule): you will forfeit your International Bursary but you will not have to pay the Annual Tuition Fees for the Qualifying Course you have cancelled or withdrawn from; or
- (b.) it is after the “No Annual Fee Liability Date” (as defined in your Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule): you will forfeit your International Bursary and you may still be responsible for paying all or part of your Annual Tuition Fees, without any Fee Reduction being applied by ULaw, in accordance with the Student Terms and Conditions and your Fee Schedule depending on the exact date on which you cancel or withdraw from your Qualifying Course.

9. What happens if you are allocated an International Bursary but decide to defer or intermit while on the Qualifying Course?

Please read this paragraph alongside your Student Terms and Conditions and your Fee Schedule.

9.1. If you have been given an International Bursary but you then decide to intermit during your Qualifying Course:

- (a.) upon your return to the Qualifying Course, after your intermission or deferral and provided you still meet the Eligibility Criteria, you will still receive the International Bursary and ULaw will apply the original Fee Reduction you have been allocated to the Annual Tuition Fee payable when you resume or start your Qualifying Course; or
- (b.) if you do not return to or start your studies following your period of intermission or the deferral agreed with ULaw, your International Bursary will be forfeited and you will be responsible for paying for your Annual Tuition Fees, without any Fee Reduction being applied by ULaw, in accordance with your Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule.

10. What happens if you are allocated an International Bursary but decide to transfer to a different course?

10.1. Please refer to the Student Terms and Conditions for the terms that apply to any requests to transfer to an alternative course. If you wish to transfer to another course offered by ULaw, you will only be eligible to receive the International Bursary if you are transferring to another Qualifying Course and you continue to meet the Eligibility Criteria.

- 10.2. In the event that you choose to transfer to another Qualifying Course, please note that your Fee Reduction may increase or decrease according to the Qualifying Course that you transfer to (please see Schedule 1 for Qualifying Courses Fee Reductions).

11. General

- 11.1. The International Bursary is made available to students at the sole discretion of ULaw and ULaw's decision shall be final.
- 11.2. You understand and acknowledge that places on the Qualifying Courses are subject to availability.
- 11.3. These Terms apply in addition to (and do not replace) our Student Terms and Conditions in relation to your Qualifying Course. Please refer to the Student Terms and Conditions for other terms that apply to your Qualifying Course. If there are any conflicts or discrepancies between these Terms and the Student Terms and Conditions, the Student Terms and Conditions will prevail.
- 11.4. These Terms (including any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with these terms) are governed by English law and are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
- 11.5. ULaw may be responsible to you for foreseeable loss and damage caused by ULaw. If we fail to comply with these Terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking these Terms or our failing to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if, at the time the contract was made, both we and you knew it might happen, for example, if you discussed it with us during the application process.
- 11.6. We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors; for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 11.7. ULaw reserves the right, with reasonable cause, to withdraw your place on or exclude you from a Qualifying Course or withhold the International Bursary if you violate any of these Terms and/or any other applicable University policies or terms and conditions including (but not limited to), the Student Terms and Conditions. ULaw policies are available on ULaw's website at <https://www.law.ac.uk/policies/>.
- 11.8. ULaw may make minor amendments to these Terms at any time. Any amendments will be published on ULaw's website and notification given to you of any such changes that affect you.
- 11.9. Even if ULaw delays in enforcing these Terms, ULaw can still enforce them later. If ULaw does not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these Terms, or if ULaw delays in taking steps against you if you break these Terms, it will not mean that you do not have to do those things or prevent ULaw from taking steps against you at a later date.
