Fee Liability 2024/2025 Academic Year

Cancellation, Deferral, Intermission and Transfer

Cancellation, Deferral, Intermission and Transfer (as each of those terms is defined in the Terms and Conditions) requests carry the same fee liability consequences as Cancellation as they all involve the Cancellation of a reserved course place.

Your fee liability on Cancellation, Deferral, Intermission and Transfer is based on the Annual Tuition Fee for your entire Course as set out in the table below, regardless of the instalment plan you have chosen.

Cooling off period

- Students can cancel their courses within 14 days of acceptance (the "cooling off period").
- If you cancel during the cooling off period and before your Course start date, you will not be liable for your Annual Tuition Fee and your Deposit will be refunded.
- If you cancel during the cooling off period but your course has already started, The University of Law can charge for materials provided and a reasonable pro-rata fee.

SQE1 & SQE2 Preparation course liability dates
Start Month	Course duration	No Fee Liability	First Fee Liability	Second Fee Liability	Full Annual Fee Liability
		If you cancel your course within your 14 day cooling off period you will be fully refunded any payment made. If you cancel outside of your cooling off period but before the start date you will be liable for an admin fee of £250	If you have started your course and cancel after the start date but before the date below you will be liable for 1/3rd of course fees	If you have started your course and cancel after the start date but before the date below you will be liable for 2/3rds of course fees	If you cancel your course having passed the 2/3rds liability date you will be fully liable for the full course fees
