

Progression for September 2022 and January 2023 full-time PgDL and MA Law (Conversion) students

Due to the projected end date of our full-time on-campus or online Postgraduate Diploma in Law (PgDL) and Master of Arts in Law (MA Law Conversion) courses, you may not be eligible to commence our Bar Practice Course (BPC), LLM Legal Practice (SQE1&2) or SQE1 Preparation Course in September 2023. For further information, please refer to the table below.

Please note: If you require a visa to study in the UK and wish to progress on to one of our on-campus vocational courses, please refer to our UK visa requirements page for information about Tier 4 visas and progression.

Can I progress on to the BPC in September 2023?

Course	Study mode	Start Date	Non-Tier 4 students	Tier 4 students
PgDL	Full-time	Sep-22	Yes	Yes
		Jan-23	Yes	No
MA Law (Conversion)	Full-time	Sep-22	Yes*	No
		Jan-23	No	No

*Publication of the final results will be after the BPC start date, so a waiver will be required from the Bar Standards Board (BSB).

Can I progress on to the LLM Legal Practice (SQE1&2) or SQE1 Preparation Course in September 2023**?

Course	Study mode	Start Date	Non-Tier 4 students	Tier 4 students
PgDL	Full-time	Sep-22	Yes	Yes
		Jan-23	Yes	No
MA Law (Conversion)	Full-time	Sep-22	Yes	Yes
		Jan-23	No	No

**We recommend you complete a law conversion course before commencing our LLM Legal Practice (SQE1&2) or SQE1 Preparation Course, as you are required to have knowledge of the seven foundation subjects of English Law (i.e. English Legal System, Constitutional and Administrative Law including retained EU Law, Contract, Tort, Land Law, Equity and Trusts, and Crime).